Stoic Camp

WYOMING STOIC CAMP

The goal of Stoic Camp is to experiment with living in a thoroughly philosophical way, using the stoics as a model, and to explore what it means to live intentionally.

Wyoming Stoic Camp, hosted by the University of Wyoming Department of Philosophy, includes:

- Engaging in rigorous study of stoic texts and related sources
- Invited guest speakers on stoicism related topics
- Meditative and journaling exercises (inspired by ancient stoic practice)

In addition to the more serious study, participants will engage in outdoor activities, including but not limited to, hiking, bonfires, and waking up to watch the sunrise on the final morning, as a direct response to one of Marcus Aurelius' recommended meditations. Stoic Camp in Centennial, Wyoming, allows for a perfect opportunity to live in agreement with nature.
